

Pivko Film is a film production company with unwavering dedication to artistic independence and self-distribution. Through our creatively thought-provoking, mind-expanding and artfully original films, we connect directly and emotionally with our audiences. Contrary to being risk-averse, we constantly break boundaries through powerful stories to engage the hearts and minds of our audiences and expand their consciousness.

Under the creative helm of our founder Jon Pivko, we're creating an artistic family of talented individuals connected by a goal that goes beyond box office returns and awards. The creative chemistry that binds our artistic family can be seen, heard and felt through the powerful stories we produce.

At Pivko Films, we are proud to uphold the integrity of our creative process, vision and business practices. We are unrelenting in our strive for originality and staying true to our independent artistic roots. We hope you will join us in experiencing pictures that truly move.
